“The All-American Halftime Show is an opportunity for all Americans to enjoy a halftime show with no agenda other than to celebrate faith, family, and freedom,” said Turning Point spokesman, Andrew Kovel. “We set out to provide an entertainment option that will be fun, excellent, and exciting for the entire family while millions are gathered together for the big game. These performers will deliver exactly that, and we can’t wait to watch the incredible show they’re about to put on. We know millions around the country will be watching too.”

“We’re approaching this show like David and Goliath. Competing with the pro football machine and a global pop superstar is almost impossible...or is it?”, said Kid Rock. “He’s said he’s having a dance party, wearing a dress, and singing in Spanish? Cool. We plan to play great songs for folks who love America.”

The show will be streamed around 8 p.m. ET on Feb. 8, 2026 on the following platforms:
